Early Head Start & Head Start Home Visiting Logic Model

Ø

Inputs Who is involved? What resources do we need?	Activities What are we doing?	Outputs How do we know it's happening?	Short-term outcomes (end of program) How do we know it's working?	Long-term outcomes (post-program) How are participants impacted?
Pregnant mothers & children (0–5 years old) Home visit materials Parent group socialization materials Board, staff, & volunteers Early childhood guidelines, frameworks, & other resources Partnerships & funding Facilities	Culturally & linguistically appropriate services Home visitors model how Individualized Family Ser- vice Plan (IFSP) objectives/ goals can be implemented Families receive - High-quality, evi- dence-based home visits through Parents as Teachers curriculum - Screenings & referrals (developmental, medical, mental health) Family support & service coordination Family group socialization activities Partnership engagement & expansion Equity infrastructure building Professional development	 Home Visitors use a diverse set of materials representative of enrolled families Gurriculum is delivered with fidelity Children receive vision, hearing, & developmental screenings Mothers are screened for postpartum depression Emilies Ace services internally or referrals Are working on IFSP goals in everyday routines Are served in their native fanguage during home visits a group socializations Make progress toward goals Moust informal partnership socialization activities Moust informal partnership socialization activities Moust informal partnership are in place with providers Moust informal partnership and in envire of families enrolled Are nacially & ethnically episeentative of families enrolled Have professional goans Receive training on families 	 Children Ane up to date on all health requirements Achieve developmental milestones Demiles Seal their culture & danguage are valued by lozi Ancourage their child's development Demonstrate self-efficact Receive needed & desired services Are self-sufficient Build social connections Children & primary garegivers are securely attached Mothers have healthy program self-efficacted Mothers have healthy fregnancies and deliver healthy babies Demonstrate Demonstrate self-efficact Build social connections Children & primary garegivers are securely attached Mothers have healthy fregnancies and deliver healthy babies Demonstrate Support of the self self self self self self self sel	<text><text><text></text></text></text>